Jesus Tempted by Sight

Luke 4:5-8

(Complete the Guided Study before reading this Study to gain your own personal insights into the passage.)

Temptations come through various channels, one of which is our eyes. There is some truth to the axiom, "Out of sight out of mind". Our depraved hearts are easily stimulated to desire things our eyes see, and it is this weakness that Satan sought to exploit in this second temptation found in Luke 4:5-8. Below are three principles to help us stand when tempted in this way.

1. Satan Will Offer the World to Gain Our Soul

"The devil led him up to a high place and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world."

Jesus was born to be King. So stated the angel Gabriel to Mary, echoed months later by the angelic host at His birth. And Satan was listening. How else do you explain this temptation? The devil knew God's purpose for Jesus and sought to derail the Almighty's plan!

From a precipice, Satan instantly displayed all the kingdoms of the world for Jesus to see. How was this possible? I don't know. But I do know that Satan will go to great lengths to capture our hearts. He will array before us all the glitter of this world, be it gem, metal or flesh, to derail our lives and send it crashing in a heap of self-indulgence. We will be promised instant happiness, instant power or instant fame. He will offer the world as bait, eager for us to bite.

Be not deceived, the devil knows us better than we know ourselves. He knows what entices us ... what catches our eyes ... and will be only too eager to oblige. Be alert, be vigilant for the predator of our souls is constantly on the prowl, and only the attentive mind and resolute heart will enlighten our eyes to see through the devil's schemes.

2. "The Devil is in the Details"

"And he said to him, 'I will give you all their authority and splendour, for it has been given to me, and I can give it to anyone I want to. So if you worship me, it will all be yours.'"

The offer was tempting indeed. To gain all the authority and splendour of the kingdoms instantly, and easily. No pain, no waiting. Why not, since it would all be His in the end anyway, right? Why do it God's way when the devil's way is so much quicker? Don't the ends justify the means? Absolutely not!

"If it sounds too good to be true, it is!" The "devil is in the details", or in this case, in the fine print. Don't sign the contract until you've read the entire offer. And that's exactly what Jesus did. The fine print ... that's where people get caught! Oh for sure He did not deny the devil's right to give away the kingdoms, for they were his. But the price was too high. The fine print ... "if you will worship me".

Jesus could have all the kingdoms of the world if He would only worship the devil. When you see the offer in its entirety it quickly loses its luster. Gain the world but lose your soul? No Way! Nothing is worth being subject to Satan for. Nothing! Including the world! Would all temptations be so plainly evident. But we lose sight of the fine print, and we get caught. Next time, read the fine print. That's where the real deal is revealed!

3. That Which We Worship is That Which We Will Serve

"Jesus answered, 'It is written: 'Worship the Lord your God and serve him only.'"

Jesus, full of the Spirit of God, discerned the scheme of the devil. And His response was fitting. "Worship the Lord your God and serve Him only." But the devil's temptation said nothing about serving, you ask? Oh but it had everything to do with it!

Temptations are contests of power. Either we will serve God or we will serve the temptor. One way or the other, we will be in subjection. Jesus knew, if we do not, that that which we worship inevitably becomes that which we serve. Satan wants to rule, and he is looking for subjects! Every time we give in to temptation and sin, we in essence subject ourselves to his rule over our lives! We may deny it, but it's true. That is why Jesus responded as He did. He knew the reality of the temptation and He refused to bend His knees to the evil one.

"God, open our eyes to the spiritual battle in every temptation." The only solution is to submit first to our God and Savior Jesus Christ and to give Him all our worship so that there is none left to give to the devil!

Think!

- 1. Identify those things Satan uses to tempt you through your sight.*
- 2. How will you thwart his attempts to tempt you in these areas?*
- 3. How does being aware of the "fine print" help us resist temptation?*
- 4. How do we end up serving the things we worship? What examples can you cite?*

Affirmations

(Recite Aloud Daily)

- 1. If I Gain the World and Lose My Soul, I Gain Nothing!
- 2. I Will Guard What My Eyes See and What My Heart Desires.
- 3. God Alone is Worthy of My Worship and My Obedience.
- 4. I Will Worship and Serve Only the Lord My God!
