Intro: God is Benevolent and rewards those who seek Him.

Hebrews 11:6

And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

Matthew 6:33

"But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Note:

In this definitive verse on faith, it is significant that it teaches you cannot please God unless you believe that He rewards those who seek Him! The numerous testimonies in the chapter reinforces the importance of this truth.

Note:

Jesus sought to separate man from his pursuit of earthly rewards in order to focus on eternal pursuits. His use of rewards helped to motivate this realignment of man's priorities, for He knew that ultimately, we tend to do what benefits us!

Note:

The promise in Jeremiah 29:11 is given specifically to the Israelites who had been taken to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. God wanted to assure them that He still had them on His mind and in His heart. The motive behind this promise was for them to seek Him!

The Attributes of God ~ His Benevolence (cont)

1 Corinthians 3

13 each man's work will become evident;
for the day will show it
because it is to be revealed with fire,
and the fire itself will test the quality
of each man's work.
14 If any man's work which he has built on it remains,
he will receive a reward.

2 Corinthians 5:10

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each one may be recompensed
for his deeds in the body,
according to what he has done,
whether good or bad.

Interpretation:

1 Corinthians 3:13-14 From the context, what will determine the 'quality' of 'each man's works? _____

What does the giving of rewards tell us about God? _____

Note:

Paul sought to encourage the Corinthian Christians with the warning that it does matter how they lived their lives. A day of reckoning was in their future and God will reward them for what they did, or did not do, in this life.

As the poem wisely teaches: 'Only one life will soon be past; Only what's done for Christ will last!'

But mercifully, the rewards have nothing to do with our eternal salvation. As Paul puts it, the man without rewards will still be saved, but singled.

Note:

Too few Christians are concerned with the judgment seat of Christ where He will either reward, or deny us according to the good and bad we did in our earthly bodies. We do well to pay attention, because clearly, rewards are important to God!

Final Note:

The Benevolence of God is the display of His goodness toward those who love and diligently seek Him. God will reward the faithful! This, in itself, demonstrates the high value God places on the life lived in pursuit of God's Kingdom and Righteousness. In the end, the only thing that will matter is all that we do in devotion to God. If this is true, and it is, then why do we do otherwise?

God is Benevolent!
He rewards our faithfulness to Him!
